

SALOONS WIDE OPEN AT ATLANTIC CITY

And Louisville Police Chief Says Beer Can Be Sold There Until Federal Court Decides

(By Associated Press)
Atlantic City, July 1—Practically every saloon in this resort is open today dispensing whisky, brandy, gin and any other liquor called for.

Police Chief Says Beer Can Be Sold In Louisville

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, July 1—Chief of Police Petty today announced he would not interfere with the sale of two and three-fourths per cent beer pending a decision of the New York Federal courts. Immediately a number of saloons continued the sale of beer left over in their cellars. Meanwhile District Attorney Miller announced that war time prohibition enforcement will be carried out to the letter.

"Old Red Eye" A Goner, Anyway

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 1—The whole nation, with probably one exception, awoke today to a realization of prohibition as far as distilled liquors is concerned but leaving in a cloud of doubt the future of beer which is permitted in states having no regulatory laws pending court decisions or action by Congress defining an intoxicating beverage.

Still Making Beer In St. Louis

(By Associated Press)
St. Louis, July 1—Thirteen local breweries today continued the manufacture of beer containing two and three-fourths per cent alcohol and a majority of saloons opened as usual but sold only beer and soft drinks.

Test Cases On Beer Coming

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 1—Test cases on the sale of beverages containing more than a half of one per cent alcohol will be brought immediately by the Department of Justice in all jurisdictions where such cases are not pending now. "We propose immediately to arrest persons who violate the war time prohibition law, according to our interpretation thereof," Attorney General Palmer said today. "The Department does not intend, however, to be swept off its feet the first day prohibition goes into effect. We will proceed in an orderly fashion to establish whether the intoxicating beverages as proscribed by the law include those having less than two and three-fourths per cent alcohol."

Can Make Beer At Own Risk

(By Associated Press)
Baltimore, July 1—Federal Judge Rose today ruled that beer of two and three-fourths per cent alcohol content could only be manufactured at the risk of the brewer, pending a final decision of the higher courts.

Congress May Kill It Quick

(By Associated Press)
Washington, July 1—At best two and three-fourths per cent beer will probably be on the market less than two weeks. It was virtually agreed today by the House Judiciary Committee to report a bill Monday, stopping its sale and to enforce war time prohibition.

Louisville Celebrates Last Night

Louisville, Ky., July 1.—Louisville, hub of the liquor industry of the state last night bade a touching farewell, both tearful and hilarious, to old John Barleycorn.
Thronged the downtown streets early in the evening and gave evidence of their intention to make it the "largest evening" of their lives.
Every downtown saloon, bar and thirst emporium in the city was thronged with jostling, pushing patrons who fought for a chance to push up to the mahogany once more.
One enthusiast in front of a downtown hotel celebrated the "inglorious first" by taking a quart of liquor and sprinkling passers-by with it. In the saloons not a drop of beer or light wines was in sight on the bars—it was "whisky straight" for all comers and the tinkling glasses were hoisted as rapidly as they could be filled. Police were stationed near many places of congestion to prevent disturbances.

Mock obsequies were conducted in numerous haunts of the bibulous and an elaborated burial service took place in the rear yard of one well-known saloon. At another largely patronized place a huge marble hand-carved tombstone announced that "John Barleycorn departed this life July 1, 1919."

Despite the huge crowds there was little disorder and police had no trouble.

Lexington, Ky., July 1.—City Clerk James O'Brien announced that W. J. Smith had paid for one month's license to operate his saloon after July 1. The Commissioners voted unanimously that no licenses should be issued during the period covered by "war-time" prohibition. Most saloons will reopen for the sale of nonintoxicating beverages upon payment of a $100 license fee, good until March 1, 1920. No applications have been made for license to sell 2 1/4 per cent beer and light wines. Mayor Rogers said that the City Commissioners will not run counters to the presidential proclamation.

At Cleveland, O., eight barrels and 102 cases of whisky, valued at $7,000, were seized by Sheriff Phelps, of Lake county, and Marshal Maloney, Willoughby, in a raid on the farm of Louis Steiss, in Willoughby. Steiss said the whisky belonged to his son, and was stored in his home when the state went dry.

TWO MILES OF NEW PIKE

The Fiscal Court is in session Tuesday with all of the members present and Judge Price presiding. Two miles of new pike were allowed at the morning session, one mile being an extension of the pike between Moberly and Speedwell, and the other mile on the Wallacetown pike, near Berea.

Wire Business As Usual

(By Associated Press)
St. Louis, July 1—Members of the Order of Railway Telegraphers throughout the country today were notified to resume handling Western Union and Postal business. The order was issued by President Manion, of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers. The ban went into effect June 12th in connection with the nation-wide strike of the Commercial Telegraphers Union.

THE 4th AT BOONESBORO

Great plans are being made for the Fourth of July at Boonesboro Bathing Beach, and one of the largest crowds that has visited this famous resort this season is expected. Dr. D. J. Williams, the genial proprietor, is planning everything possible for the entertainment of his guests. A good band will furnish music for dancing, and there will be other attractions, and in the evening an Old Fiddlers' Contest will be a big feature. Louis Hardin will run an auto bus hourly from town to the beach at a low rate, and as most of the business houses in town will observe a half holiday anyway and the banks and post-office will close entirely, the crowd promises to be a record-breaker.

CANDIDATES GET POSITIONS ON BALLOTS

Secretary of State J. P. Lewis is sending out instructions regarding the placing of the names of candidates on the primary ballot. Ballot paper to be used in the primary already has been shipped to the county clerks.

Gov. James D. Black, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, will get his name first on the ballot in the First, Fourth, Seventh and Tenth Congressional districts; John D. Carroll, first in the Second, Fifth, Eighth and Eleventh districts, and P. J. Noel in the Third, Sixth and Ninth Congressional districts.

As there are but two candidates for the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor, they will rotate. R. C. Oldham appearing first in the First district, and W. H. Shanks first in the Second district.

Oldham is first in the Third; Shanks in the Fourth; Oldham in the Fifth; Shanks in the Sixth; Oldham in the Seventh; Shanks in the Eighth; Oldham in the Ninth; Shanks in the Tenth, and Oldham in the Eleventh. The candidates for other offices rotate the same way.

SPLENDID WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Polly Baber, wife of Mr. George Baber, of Union City, aged 72 years, a most estimable woman, died at her home at Union City Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Baber stood high in the community, was for many years a devout member of the Christian church and will be greatly missed for her good works and kindly deeds. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. J. M. Thomas, of Waco, Mrs. Henry Abney, of Union City, and Messrs. Andrew and Wright Baber, of Union City, and Henry Baber, of Wades Mill, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended. Funeral services will be conducted at Union City Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. W. R. Peel, of Nicholasville. Interment in the Doyleville cemetery.

Lee Deputy Sheriff Drowned

John Will Jameson, Deputy Sheriff of Lee county and who has resided at Beattyville for a number of years, was drowned in the Kentucky river Saturday afternoon. Jameson was one of the best known men in eastern Kentucky and was known to be one of the best officers in that section. The return home without his master of the high-spirited horse on which the deputy left Beattyville late Wednesday evening caused a hunt for Mr. Jameson. His saddle bags and hat were found on the bank of the river where sharp rocks slope almost perpendicularly from the road. It is believed that the horse threw him and that he was too stunned to save himself from falling into the water. No marks of violence were found on the body.

Jameson was deputy sheriff for eighteen years. He served in the Spanish American War.

SCHOOLBOOK MEN MEET AGAIN TODAY

The fight among schoolbook publishers to procure contracts for four years for text books used by pupils in the public schools of this state began Monday for the second time this year at Frankfort. The first adoption made this spring, while Gov. Stanley was chairman of the State Textbook Commission, was set aside by the court for irregularities. Governor Black, the Chairman of the Commission, then requested the commission to resign, but each member refused, so the commission met Monday to make the adoption as requested by law.

After receiving the bids, which were not made public, the commission adjourned until Tuesday at 9 o'clock.

The Louisville Times Monday said that fifteen minutes before the State Textbook Commission met at noon, Phil Grinstead, co-author with his brother, Wren Grinstead, of the Eastern Kentucky State Normal School, of the speller adopted by the commission at its recent void adoption, declared that his book would not be offered to the commission. It was the general feeling that the contracts for the six readers published by the John C. Winston Co. of Philadelphia, which company Phil Grinstead represents, were much more important and that he gladly let go of the speller for the reader contract. The speller was to be published by the Transylvania Publishing Company, of Lexington, and it was believed that this company would land the writing book contract as it did before. The fact that the commission cannot make as many changes as before made the situation not so easy for the book men.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

President Wilson has joined with government officers of England, France, Italy, and Japan in framing a League of Nations to enforce peace, which if ratified by the United States Senate, will deprive our American people of a portion of their sovereignty, and partially destroy the independence of the United States.

He has combined the League with the Peace Treaty in such a way that it is difficult, if not impossible for the Senate to separate the League from the Peace Treaty, so as to amend it.

But some of our Senators have declared that they intend to try and separate the League from the Peace Treaty, and then amend it in such a way as to make it leave the sovereignty of our people and the independence of our country unimpaired.

These facts make an urgent call upon all Americans to do what they can to support our Senators in every effort they make to preserve the full sovereignty of our people and the complete independence of these United States.

Doubtless it is true that England, Italy and Japan want the League in its present form to be ratified by the Senate, since this would give American soldiers and money to help to preserve the independence of these countries, and to maintain their sovereigns upon thrones.

But the fact that these foreign countries want the League ratified in its present form would not justify our Senators in doing it, since this would diminish the sovereignty of our people and the independence of our country.

If our Senators should find that it is impossible for them to separate the League from the Peace Treaty so that they can amend it, they can refuse to ratify these two combined Treaties, for they passed a constitutional power to reject any treaty that the President negotiates. Hence the sovereignty of our people and the independence of these United States depend upon the virtue, the loyalty, the patriotism and the intelligence of our Senators.

MRS. JAMES BENNETT.

DIXIE WAY NEEDS ANOTHER $100,000

Officials and directors of the Dixie Highway Association at the end of their third day's tour of inspection over the Eastern section of the highway, disbanded Wednesday evening at Knoxville after coming from London, where they passed the second night of their journey.

The party literally passed over, through and under the proposed Dixie Highway. The journey was over wet roads, made unsafe and tiresome by heavy rains, and, except for occasional stretches of hard surface highway, all the vagaries of mountain roads at their worst were encountered. At one point between Jellico, Tenn., and LaFollette, Tenn., two East Tennessee mountain towns, the party was compelled to wait more than an hour while workmen engaged on the proposed route of the Dixie Highway raised to enable the automobiles in which the party was making the tour to pass beneath. The road otherwise was impassable.

Frequent mishaps marred the day's travel. At one point in the Tennessee mountains the car occupied by Carl Fisher, of the Indianapolis Speedway, Indianapolis, and other, slid off the road. At other points machines stuck in the mud and had to be hauled out by hand with ropes, or teams had to be obtained to pull them out of the mud in order that they might progress.

According to officials of the association, the most hopeful signs were that in evidence in the mountain counties of Kentucky and Tennessee, where the roads were at their worst was the visible efforts toward improvements, and the verbal promises from city and county officials along the way that the road would be graded and surfaced in time for the dedication set for June by the association officials.

Road Commissioner Rodman Wiley, of Kentucky, who joined the inspection party at Lexington, on the first day of the journey, assured Judge M. M. Allison, Chattanooga, Tenn., president of the association, that the Kentucky section of the roads would be ready in time for the dedication.

Judge Allison and Secretary V. D. L. Robinson, of the association estimate that the proposed improvements which will have to be made in that time will exceed $100,000, the major portion of which must be spent in Kentucky, before the road can be opened officially, and the traveling public assured that the journey, which is rich in interest and scenic effects, can be made with any degree of comfort and safety.

ADVERTISING INCREASES CHURCH ATTENDANCE

Columbus, Ohio, July 1.—"I never saw a church which advertised and didn't have a good attendance," declared Dr. Christian F. Reissner, head of the Methodist Minute Men organization, who is in charge of the church advertising exhibit at the Methodist Centenary celebration. "The church can't convert empty seats, and the best way to fill them by advertising." The exhibit is unique, there being not another like it in the country. Church advertisements of every description—10,000 of them—line four walls of a room in American building No. 1. They have been in the process of collection for many years by Dr. Reissner who is head of the Methodist Associated Advertising Clubs of the World. Dr. Reissner was the first Methodist minister to advertise, according to his statement. Sixteen years ago, while pastor of the Grace Methodist Episcopal church in Denver he began. Since then church advertising has become an accepted thing. The original objections to it, that it tended to rob the church of its dignity have fallen away, according to Dr. Reissner. The government's use of it during the war for propaganda purposes did much to hasten this, he said. "The church must sell itself by advertising," says Dr. Reissner. "It must meet the competition of Sunday golf and automobilism. If we accept the statement made recently to the effect that 50,000,000 people do not go to church, we may then consider every other person a possible customer."

Stomach is Quick to Upset When School Children Are Idle

VACATION days are days of over-eating and under-exercising for most boys and girls. They loiter around nibbling at light food, unconcerned whether the fruit is green or ripe.

The result is cramps, skin eruptions, pimples, "summer colds," constipation and diarrhea. The basis of such trouble is an upset stomach, and nothing will give safer and quicker relief than the well-known Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is just a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, a formula evolved some 30 years ago by Dr. Caldwell himself. Syrup Pepsin is now used by millions of people and is today the largest-selling liquid laxative in the world.

It is the mildest and gentlest of laxatives. It regulates the stomach and bowels so well that they can soon work normally again without the aid of medicine. And unlike the harsher physics and cathartics, Syrup Pepsin does not gripe or cause discomfort, even to a tiny baby.

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter the family size. A free trial bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

LALLEY-LIGHT

THE BALL-BEARING ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT

Plant is 24 inches long, 14 inches wide, 21 inches high

Lalley-Light furnishes two sources of light and power in the one plant.

The machine itself is one; the storage battery is the other.

Light used direct from the generator is as steady and strong and brilliant as from the battery.

This is an advantage not usually found.

It is due to the fact that the patented Lalley-Light engine is especially designed and built to drive an electric generator.

It is worth a great deal to the man who must have light and power that are wholly reliable.

McMurry—Royster

Many friends and loved ones here will be interested in news of the wedding at Shelby, N. C., of Miss Margaret McMurry and Mr. D. W. Royster. The bride is almost a Richmond girl, for her grandmother, Mrs. Sallie Willis and her mother, who was Miss Cora Willis, were both natives of Madison and widely related and beloved here. The bride often visits here, and all will extend sincerest good wishes for every happiness for her and the man of her choice. An additional interest was lent to this wedding by reason of the fact that Miss Elath Buchanan, of Richmond, went to be one of the bridesmaids. The following from the Shelby, N. C., newspaper telling of the beautiful affair will be read with interest here:

A wedding of such elaborate beauty as Shelby society rarely witnesses occurred at nine o'clock on Thursday evening at the First Baptist church when Miss Margaret McMurry became the bride of Mr. D. W. Royster. Fitting an occasion of such note the church was adorned with unusual charm of decoration. A great pyramid of tall palms and graceful ferns formed a background across the church in the rear of the altar, which was formed of white columns surrounded by cases of pink roses.

The vows were spoken beneath a great white arch entwined with ivy, in the center of which was suspended a wedding bell, made of rose petals and orange blossoms. Two smaller arches marked the approaches to the altar.

Just prior to the ceremony a musical scale was rendered by Mrs. F. D. Quinn, organist, Mrs. John Schenck, violinist. Following this Miss Ruth Mason, in her superb soprano sang "Oh Perfect Love" and "Bridal Chorus."

When the organ sounded the notes of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin the bride and groom entered the altar, Messrs. J. E. Dover, Jr., J. F. Schenck, Jr., Connelly, Eskridge and Harry Woodson leading. Next came the officiating minister, Rev. J. M. Kester, pastor of the bride and Rev. John W. Suttle. Following were the flower maids, Misses Georgia Belle Shepherd, of Cincinnati, Ohio, cousin of the bride and Miss Frances McBrayer, cousin of the groom. They were lovely in their dainty dresses of pink silk net over tulle with lace trimmings and carrying baskets of pink roses. Following the flower maids the bridesmaids, Misses Elath Buchanan, of Richmond, Ky., with Mr. Will Parsley of Spindale, N. C., Mrs. A. W. McMurry mother

TERribly SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks."

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a tea-spoonful of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Theodor's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodor's Black-Draught."

Theodor's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it! NC-13U

It's Straw Hat Time

And this store is straw hat center; all the new styles; rough and smooth straws; panamas, sennits; light weight and comfortable

Let us show you

JUST because you don't belong to the tall slender type of man, the kind who seems built for the waist-seam style, you needn't put yourself in the hard-to-fit class.

In fact, no matter what group you fall into; whether you're built for waist-seam models, or conservative sacks; whether you prefer clothes that fit rather snugly or like them built for ease, comfort; loose and roomy—we know we can fit you. There's no magic in that either; it's only a question of our having a big variety of suits from

Hart Schaffner & Marx

They have furnished us with suits in regular sizes; suits for stout men, tall men, short men; clothes for men who like the more extreme models like the waist-seam style shown here; 2 and 3 button sacks for those who prefer something more conservative. All we ask is a chance to prove how well we can take care of you.

Dixie Weaves are the correct fabrics for summer; they are all-wool; tailor up well; no weight to them. Just try one on and you'll be "sold."

ADVANCE IN Horseshoeing

Sometime ago when the prices were advanced on Horseshoeing, it was the intention of the undersigned to reduce the prices at the close of the war. However, conditions are even worse now than ever before, since all shoes, nails, labor and everything in our line has advanced in price. We are therefore, compelled to raise the price again and these new prices go into effect today, July 1st. There will be a 20 cent advance over the old prices on all Horseshoeing.

KRYL TO PERSONALLY CONDUCT BAND HERE

Bohumir Kryl, who will personally conduct his band at the Chautauqua here, is universally acknowledged to be one of the world's greatest band masters. He is also known as the world's greatest cornetist.

The Kryl band concert is one of the greatest features ever to appear in a Chautauqua. Mr. Kryl has directed bands in the leading cities in the country and always the verdict has been that his is one of the greatest bands of America.

Mr. Kryl's unique and magnetic personality adds much to the concert. His marvelous conducting is always a source of wonder and delight to his audiences. Kryl of the leonine head will long be remembered in this city. During the concert Mr. Kryl will give a number of cornet solos for which he has become famous. His inimitable playing of the cornet is an achievement extraordinary.

Mr. Kryl besides being a great band master has also achieved fame as a critic of art. He possesses a fine collection of paintings of the great masters and he is never so happy as when he secures some great painting.

Kryl is also a sculptor. In fact, he was at work on a bust of the author, Ben Hur when John Phillip Sousa happened to hear him playing upon his cornet and persuaded him to pursue a musical career. Mr. Kryl and Sousa are very great friends and when during the war, Sousa organized a navy band, Kryl offered his services to the war department and directed a wonderful army band.

Kryl is a native of Bohemia and in company with the other members of his race in this country during the war he was intensely pro-ally. He was making arrangements to go to Europe to lead a big army band "over there" when the armistice was declared.

Mr. Kryl is also known as the
